Village News:

There is an old saying that when Adar comes around, so does joy. But the extension is that when Purim is over, spring Pesach cleaning begins!

The Purim party was our usual success - without too much the drunkenness, despite the order to drink until you forget everything.... The theme this year was Hollywood and some of the costumes were amazing. Niv Dadush received a prize for his costume as Snow White, Nisan Palma was stunning as Cruella DeVille, Mali Amit as a Marilyn Monroe look alike and Rinat Oren-Suissa as Liza Minelli. Yagil Oren and his girlfriend, Ortal, were Peter Pan and Tinkerbell. Just far too many to mention but it was a spectacular evening! The 12th graders did a Tcheri-Tcheri Bollywood dance - lots of fun!

We still have to deal with the end of the Olmert government and the unsatisfactory negotiations for the release of Gilad Shalit. Who knows if and what sort of government Bibi will be able to put together?

Last Saturday there was a commemorative ceremony marking a year since Joe Cina's (Z"L) death. The service was held in the club room and people remembered the good years and the happy times too.

On Sunday (15/03) there was a memorial service for Eitan Gedalizon Z"L, in Tel-Hai. We hear it was a very moving ceremony with a showing of the movie that was just prepared for the Tel-Hai expansion.

Ido Fuchs is rejoining the civilian world after finishing his service as a medic in the Army. He uses his field experience as a medic for trekkers and has done his lifeguard training too. This summer he will be in the USA counselling at the summer camps there, which are run by the Jewish Agency.

Galil Rosenkrantz has been drafted and now sports the uniform of Nahal.

The middle school kids have finally gotten their own counsellor, named Boaz.

Simcha's mom, Mrs. Eizen, has come for a two week stay in Beit Yonatan. She's receiving VIP treatment and who knows? She may stay on....

On the last trip the vatikim met with Zami Ravid and saw his collection of musical instruments from 80 different countries and even got to hear some of them played.

Shlomo Weissbecker is once again in India. But the intrepid trekker r who has returned is Eddie Nemenov, who was there for a three weeks. (See? Never too late!)

Our kids are getting good at having ski holidays in Europe. The latest group to go included Aviv Ellman, Ron Ginat, Erez Bilgory, Dotan Maayan, and Doron Oren. Or Oren joined them from the USA and Shoni Wallach from Australia. What a bunch of guys!

Spring is definately in the air and it's the right time to hike. Good time to take some time off. Actually the factory closed down for a week (not for the spring but because of the economic situation) so most of the workers got some time off and went down to the hotels by the Dead Sea to revitalize themselves and have a good massage.

Have a great Shabbos and don't go overboard with the Pesach cleaning. Just remember that there will always be more to do.
